

Prayer for a Rainbow

(Translation from Persian)

Be on the side of God
He will keep you from calamity
If you want steadfastness from the loved one
Hang on to the strings of love

I told him to hold on strong
And to stand up strong
God only helps if you help yourself

No drop of rain would fall from the clouds
Until God's kindness starts to pour
Raindrops draw God's picture in the sky

A rain with drops filled with love
To saturate the desert of heart
A rain with drops playing love songs
To bring alive the wastelands

Have consciousness
It will keep you from making flaws
You are only free when you are
The prisoner of your own heart.

No drop of rain would fall from the clouds
Until God's kindness starts to pour
Raindrops draw God's picture in the sky

For a rainbow
You have to have rain;
Rain must fall
For a rainbow to exist.

Payman Abdali
IO Music Project