Share me a kiss

Sing me a song that the heart desires,
Share me a thought that lights up my fire
Give me a sign so my spirit flies
Share me a kiss that wipes out good byes

I've seen the days stretch longer
I've flown into the space of wonder
Give me the ticket to the show
Get me out of here, let's just go

I've seen lives consider worthless
I've heard the speeches of their lord
Share me your heat, out of this cold
Share me a kiss that is brave and bold

Fly me through the rings of smoke,
Hug me, get rid of the stench of this old cloak
Kill me while you love me, love me till the end
Share me a kiss, even if you pretend .
